12 as outlined in Local Rule 16-6, an Early Neutral Evaluation Session is scheduled to commence

27 ORDER SCHEDULING EARLYNEUTRAL EVALUATION SESSION - 1

1 III. Attendance of Trial Counsel and Client/Client Representatives [LR 16-6(e)]

2 All counsel of record who will be participating in the trial of this case, all parties
3 appearing pro se, if any, and all individual parties must be present at the ENE.

4 Unless excused by order of the court, clients or client representatives with complete
5 authority to negotiate and consummate a settlement shall be in attendance at the ENE. This 6 requires the presence of the plaintiff.

7 The defendant shall appear in person, but if the defendant is a corporate, governmental,
8 or other organizational entity, an authorized representative of the client must be present who can
9 accept a settlement offer and can authorize dismissal of the action if it is settled. Such a
10 representative of the defendant must have final settlement authority to commit the defendant to 11 pay, in the representative's own discretion, a settlement amount up to the plaintiff's last demand.
12 If board approval of a governmental entity will be required to authorize settlement, the 13 attendance of at least one sitting member of the board (preferably the chairperson) is absolutely 14 required.

15 Any insurance company which may be contractually required to defend or to pay
16 damages, if any, assessed within its policy limits in this case must have a fully authorized
17 settlement representative present. Such representative must have final settlement authority to 18 commit the company to pay, in the attending representative's own discretion, an amount within 19 the policy limits, or up to the Plaintiff's last demand.

20 The purpose of the requirement of person attendance is to have a representative present
21 who has both the authority to exercise his or her own discretion, and the realistic freedom to 22 exercise such discretion without the negative consequences, in order to settle the case during the 23 ENE session without consulting someone else who is not present. In the event counsel for any

1 party is aware of any circumstance which might cast doubt on a client's or a client's
2 representative/insurer's compliance with this paragraph, he/she shall immediately discuss the
3 circumstance with opposing counsel to attempt to resolve it well before the ENE, and if such
4 discussion does not resolve it, request a telephone conference with the evaluation magistrate
5 judge and counsel.

6
7 Counsel appearing for the EN without their client representatives or insurance company
8 representatives, unless authorized by the court, may cause the ENE to be canceled or 9 rescheduled. If this occurs, the non-complying party, attorney, attorney or insurer may be 10 assessed the cost and expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by other parties and the court as 11 a result of such cancellation, as well as any additional sanctions deemed appropriate by the court.
12 Counsel are responsibility for timely advising any involved non-party insurance company of the 13 requirement of this order.

14
15 Any exceptions to the above attendance requirements must be submitted to this court for 16 approval at least one week in advance of the ENE.

17
18 IV. Preparation for Early Neutral Evaluation Session [LR 16-6(f)]

19 In preparation for the ENE, the attorneys for each party shall submit a confidential
20 written evaluation statement for the court's in camera review. The ENE statement shall be 21 concise and shall:

22
23 A. Identify by name or status the person with decision-making authority who, in 24 addition to the attorney, will attend the ENE session as representative of the party,
25 and persons connected with a party opponent (including an insurer representative)
26 whose presence might substantially improve the utility of the ENE session or the 27 prospects of settlement;

- 1 B. Briefly describe the substance of the suit, addressing the party's views on the key 2 liability and damages issues;
- 3 C. Address whether there are legal or factual issues early resolution of which could
4 reduce significantly the scope of the dispute or contribute to settlement
5 negotiations;
- 6 D. Describe the history and status of settlement negotiations;
- 7 E. Include copies of documents, pictures, recordings, etc. out of which the suit arose,
8 or the availability of which would materially advance the purposes of the 9 evaluation session (e.g., medical reports, documents by which special damages
10 might be determined);
- 11 F. Discuss the strongest and weakest points of your case, both factual and legal,
12 including a candid evaluation of the merits of your case;
- 13 G. Estimate the cost (including attorney's fees and costs) of taking this case through 14 trial;
- 15 H. Describe the history of any settlement discussion and detail the demands and 16 offers that have been made and the reason settlement discussion have been 17 unsuccessful; and
- 18 I. Certify that the party has made initial disclosures under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)
19 and that the plaintiff has provided a computation of damages to the defendant
20 under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii).

21
22 Each evaluation statement will remain confidential unless a party gives the court
23 permission to reveal some or all the information in the statement before or during the session.
25
26
27
28

1 The parties should consider, however, whether it would be beneficial to exchange non-
2 confidential portions of their ENE statements. LR 16-6(f)(2).

3 The purpose of the ENE statement is to assist the court in preparing for and conducting
4 the ENE session. The parties should be aware that LR 16-6 requires the evaluating magistrate
5 judge, inter alia, to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of the parties' contentions and to
6 estimate, where feasible, the likelihood of liability and the potential range of damages. In order
7 to facilitate a meaningful conference, your utmost candor in responding to the above-listed
8 questions is required. The ENE statement will not be seen by the district judge or the magistrate
9 judge assigned to this case. The confidentiality of each statement will be strictly maintained
10 unless a party gives the court permission to reveal some or all of the information contained
11 within the statement. Following the ENE session, the statements will be destroyed. LR 16-5;
12 LR 16-6(h).

13 V. Submission of ENE Statements

14 The written evaluation statements shall be received by the Clerk's Office Chambers,
15 Suite 301, not later than 4:00 P.M., TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 2019. The statement should be
16 delivered in an envelope clearly marked "Confidential, contains ENE Evaluation Statement."

17 Do not serve a copy on opposing counsel unless counsel have agreed to exchange non-
18 confidential portions of their evaluation statement. Do not deliver or mail them to the Clerk's 19 Office.

20 VI. Binding Settlement Agreement

21 If a settlement is achieved, the essential terms of the settlement will be placed on the 22 record in either a sealed or unsealed format. The Court may retain jurisdiction of the case to 23 implement the ENE agreement and to resolve any dispute, discrepancy or content of the terms of 24

1 the settlement agreement. Barring unique circumstances, the Court will not retain jurisdiction
2 after a dismissal of the action is entered.
